CHOOSING AN URN VAULT

REMEMBER. CELEBRATE. HEAL.

Every life comes to an end. And when it does, it leaves behind the complex question of how to best honor the loved one we've lost, how to celebrate a life, and how to ease our sorrow.

Remember seeing a face for the first time, or an entire lifetime shared. When we plan a memorial, we are laying a cornerstone for our memories – a foundation for how we will always remember the person we've lost.

Celebrate a life. Tragically short, or long and full, each life has the unique ability to touch those around it. As we move forward without our loved one, it is important to celebrate the gifts they have given us and the way they made our world better just by being a part of it.

Heal from the sorrow of loss. What starts here today will be a process of healing that lasts a lifetime – a process that begins with the peace of mind knowing we have done our best to commemorate the life of someone we love.

At Trigard, we believe in the best; remembering the best, celebrating the best and, most of all, in the healing that comes from doing our best. We believe this shines through in our products, our people and our service. It is our pleasure to provide you with the opportunity to do the very best that you can for your loved one — and our honor to be allowed to participate as you remember, celebrate and heal.

ALWAYS REMEMBER.

All things pass away, but memories remain. And when we have lost someone dear to us, remembering their life and celebrating what they brought to ours is an integral part of the healing process.

If you or your loved one have chosen cremation, these processes of memorialization and celebration are no less important than if you were planning a traditional burial service. This is why we are pleased to provide you with a variety of cremation memorial options – helping you to choose the best way to remember your loved one, celebrate their life and begin to heal.

STRENGTH. VERSATILITY. PEACE.

At Trigard, giving the best is an idea that starts with our urn vault design and continues through to the value we place on the successful celebration of a life. As you make plans to memorialize your loved one, peace of mind is a key issue for proper healing to begin. Through the strength and versatility of our products, we help you to find that peace — providing the assurance that you have given your very best as you commemorate the life of someone you love.

HEALING TREE®

The Healing Tree is part of a Trigard celebration of life package that allows your family to participate in an interactive graveside ceremony.

HEALING TREE POEM

Above you rests a Healing Tree,
 with branches to the sky.
 Its roots planted deeply
 connecting you and I.
 Its shape, its trunk, its stature,
 represent your life.
 The trials and tribulations,
 the joys, the tears, the strife.
 From the Healing Tree I shall take a ring shaped like a dove
 A ring to hold precious memories of your unforgotten love.

Available in white marble only and as an Aegean or Elite urn vault.
